Ensign F. K. Fulton Is Assigned To Navy Center

Ensign F. K. Fulton, of Berkeley, has been assigned to the Naval Material Redistribution Center in Torrance as accounting officer, according to announcement by Commander George Hopp, officer in charge. He comes to Torrance from nine months of service at Pearl Harbor. Fulton succeeds Lt. (jg) J. T. McKinley, USNR, who has been discharged.

Townsend Club No. 1
 By LOTTIE WADE
 Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will hold its regular meeting in the Men's Bible Class hall on Friday evening, Jan. 11. It is desired that all members, old and new, be present as the secretary is rendering a quarterly and her final report. There will be the usual games with refreshments and dancing.

Weekly Dances In Auditorium To Start Tomorrow

Weekly Friday night dances in the Civic Auditorium will start tomorrow night, with the Job's Daughters organization here joining with the younger element of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the initial affair, according to Vernon Coil, VFW dance committee chairman. The dance tomorrow will start at 8 p.m., and music will be to the fine 15-piece Dick Richards band which made its Torrance debut New Year's Eve at the joint Lions Club-VFW dance, in the auditorium. Dick Richards will play for the weekly dances. Coil said, having been engaged on a permanent contract. Tickets will be on sale at the window or with VFW members.

Ousting Of Gardena Card Clubs Is Object Of New Organization

Formation of a committee for the purpose of ousting card clubs from Gardena was effected recently at a joint meeting of Protestant churches under the auspices of the Gardena Ministerial Association. The meeting, held in the Baptist church, was attended by approximately 150 people who listened to an outline of the proposed campaign and reasons for it given by Dr. David L. Mounts, pastor of the Methodist church; Rev. W. Floyd Alexander, Baptist church pastor; Dr. S. Martin Eidsath, Presbyterian pastor; Rev. J. Emory Ackerman, Lutheran pastor, and Attorney John W. Loucks of Los Angeles. Members of the committee appointed to run the organization which will be known as the "Committee Opposed to Gambling in Gardena," include A. J. Walters, Cramer Gleaton, R. L. Shockley, Mrs. B. Fields, Mrs. William Mowatt and Mrs. Ernest Jones.

Rev. J. Emory Ackerman told the audience that he was formerly an accountant for a national firm and that he had inspected the city's financial records in an effort to determine whether or not it actually survives as a city without the help of outside finances. "We simply have to vote for it and then see whether we must sink or swim without them," Ackerman said. "We have done it before and we will probably do it again." In examining the city figures Ackerman said that they disclosed that the city last year had received $72,000 from the card clubs and had actually spent $28,000 of this money besides its other revenues. This year the government has expected nearly the entire $73,000 expected revenue from the card clubs but has only budgeted $44,000 up until April 1. "If these card clubs go out," Ackerman continued, "the minimum budget would need at least $15,000 more—that is hazardous more or less of a guess—but the city with its absolute expenses would need $15,000 more from some other source than they get from taxes, licenses, business permits, etc."

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for this first Catholic card party of the new year, to be held this evening, are Mrs. M. Collingsworth, Forester, Kitto, Dorigan, Emery, Elder, Landerville, Cole, Lydia, Sullivan and Spangler. Everyone is cordially invited. The first door prize will be drawn at 8:00 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinocle and 500 will begin immediately. Refreshments will be served.

MATA-LOVANO WED IN YUMA CEREMONY
 Mrs. Carmen Lovano, of Los Angeles, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Rachel, to Mr. Edward Mata, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mata, of 1018 Arlington ave. The couple was united in marriage Dec. 27 in a simple ceremony performed in Yuma, Ariz. The bridegroom is in Merchant Marine service.

LAS VEGAS HOLIDAY
 Blaine Walker, executive secretary of Torrance Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Walker spent the entire holiday season with Mrs. Walker's brother, A. L. Gifford, Las Vegas, Nev. Upon their arrival here they received word that their son, Capt. Blaine O. Walker, had been promoted to Major. He is attached to an Infantry unit and had served overseas for one and a half years.
